

Recovery conditions and evidence complexity

Margins govern the upper bound; information separation governs the lower bound.

No empirical Graph-ANNS claim is made until all three inputs are measured with deployable data.